Bay School Board Goes Ahead on Stadium Job

A four-phase program for construction of the Bay St. Louis Municipal Stadium District stadium was recommended to the board of trustees Monday night by Architect Fred Wagner. He advised seeking bids in the industrial areas of lighting, bleachers, construction, construction of concession stands and rest rooms and grading of the field area.

Reserve Calls, Conventions Out for Logue

It'll be two weeks on active duty rather than fabulous Las Vegas and the national Joyce convention or a slot as panelist at the Mississippi Hospital Association meeting for Capt. Thomas O. Logue, Army reservist.

Logue, administrator of Hancock General Hospital, got ordered last week to report Sunday for two weeks duty at 4th Corps headquarters in Birmingham, Ala.

Logue has been planning for several weeks to leave this weekend for the Joyce convention June 18-22, setting part of his travel expenses paid as a national director and his work extensively on the hospital convention June 25-27. On one occasion, Logue was to moderate a session on bad debts, the other was on costs vs. hospital management.

The 1st Sqn intervened and Logue was back in that office in the Corps of Engineers.

HGH Views Addition at Test Site

Tom Logue, administrator of Hancock General Hospital, was directed by the hospital board of trustees Tuesday night to investigate possibility of setting up a 10-bed hospital on the NASA testing site, equipped and staffed by Hancock General, Logue pointed out that NASA's proximity to Poycune and other communities made Hancock General one among several contenders for the impending overflow of patients, and he expressed a desire to see Hancock General first in line with medical aid for the project.

Dr. A. K. Martinovich, chief of medical staff, appeared on complaints concerning the lack of doctors in the past months. He said discomforts arose when Drs. Frank L. Schmidt and T. A. Quigley were both out of town, and at the time he felt hospital emergencies had priority over house calls. He expressed confidence the shortage will soon be relieved.

Bids on consumable hospital supplies for the coming year were called for 9 a.m., July 6. A claim docket for May of $8,500 was examined and approved. Average patient load was 19.

On the suggestion of Logue, a motion by Kenneth Pepperdine called the trustees into a short executive meeting.

Texas Youth Dead In Diving Accident

A diving accident at Dalmann Center Sunday morning proved fatal to a 19-year-old Texan who succumbed about three hours later at Hancock General Hospital.

An inquest jury impaneled by acting coroner Nellius C. Rhodes returned a verdict of accidental death by drowning for Larry Joel Voss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Voss of Austin.

Voss was one of about 90 attending the Texas Synod Youth Round-up of the United Church of Christ who had arrived at the camp Thursday. The mishap occurred on the final swim period for the campers before they returned home that afternoon. It was the first fatal accident since Dalmann Center opened in 1929.

William Royster, camp director, said the youth dove into water about three feet deep at the end of the pier, apparently knocking himself out when he hit bottom. Another swimmer stumbled upon the body shortly afterwards and rescue efforts started. Dr. Jack Houston of Union, who is moving here to practice next month, was reached at his new home in Bay St. Louis and rushed to the scene to help, along with Sheriff Gerald Price. Royster said the boy was breathing by himself, but spasmodically, when the doctor arrived and he was taken to the hospital where heart beat and pulse were reported normal when he suffered a relapse and died.

The camp director and H. Winckelmann, superintendent at the center, said lifeguards had warned the youth on two previous occasions about diving into the shallow water. His sister, Audrey, who also was on the round-up, told them he was a very good swimmer.

Fahy-Whitfield Funeral Home shipped the body to New Braunfels, Tex., for final rites Wednesday. A memorial service will be held Sunday at his home church, Trinity United, in Austin.

Meet Set with Top Engineer

Testimony of 24 property owners in the NASA test site who say they are not satisfied with the price offered by the government for their land was recorded at a meeting at Logtown School Monday night, according to Dr. James F. Fargason, chairman of the Property Owners Committee. He said 21 were in the fee area and three in the buffer zone, declaring that figure represents a substantial majority of those involved.

Meanwhile a conference of the committee with Col. D. A. Raymond, chief of the Mobile District, Corps of Engineers, under whom land is being acquired, has tentatively been scheduled for 1 p.m. Monday at the corps' office in Bay St. Louis, Fargason said, following a suggestion from U. S. Senator John Stennis for such a session to discuss dissatisfaction over prices. The property owners group held its first public meeting last Wednesday night at Logtown School with about 200 persons, including children, in attendance. Fargason reported at that time consultations with top engineers of the Corps who were serving on the site, he said he in the area last week. He said the area last week. He said the area last week.

The chairman reported Gov. Ross Barnett had expressed his sympathy for the property owners at a conference last Wednesday arranged by H. C. Hill of Poycune, colonel on the governor's staff. Making the trip with Fargason were Cody Isbell, M. G. Eccles and Elwood Andrews.

Cornelius Ladner, legal counsel for the committee, cautioned those who are dissatisfied with the price offered them to be careful that counter offers are not below what others might be offered for their land. It was noted that some individuals have been soliciting owners in the north part of the test area saying that for a given fee they will represent the owner before the government. Anyone so approached was advised to notify the sheriff's office.

Henry Oats asked residents to write relatives and friends in

Lake Charles Rites Unite Miss Moss, Ensign Argus

Tall urns of white roses and gladioli and garlands of spangly ferns adorned the altar of the immaculate Conception Church, Lake Charles, La., for the wedding at 11 a.m. Tuesday of Miss Elizabeth Ann Moss, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Clement M. Moss of Lake Charles, to Ensign Wilbert Lang Argus, Jr., USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Argus of Bay St. Louis and New Orleans. Rev. Charles J. Mallet officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a long gown of white silk organza, the bodice of which was appliqued with organza roses and daisies and sprinkled with white velvet bows. She wore as her veil a cathedral train and carried a bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and anemones.

For receiving guests Mrs. Moss wore a short gown of dusty rose chiffon with a lace bodice, matching hat and shoes and an orchid corsage. ## Polly At Waveland Elwood Memorial Park is to be formally dedicated at 2 p.m. Sunday, July 1. Despite much hard work by committee chairman Mrs. Winthrop Baker and assistants, the total profit realized from last year's rodeo amounted to only a dollar or so over $200 after expenses such as printing of programs, tickets, etc., were paid. This money was obtained from local business firms and other interested persons who donated to the program. The committee Saturday morning met with Mayor Garfield Lodner and decided that the $200 will be stretched just as far as is humanly possible—at least one gym set will be purchased. Frank Banach offered to donate structural steel for bleacher supports. Aldermen Dominick Soder and Albert Grass volunteered carpentry services to erect these seating facilities. Mr. and Mrs. James Lawhorn have offered to assist in any way they are needed and we are quite certain there are many other civic minded residents who will wish to further assist this cause.

The dedication will be brief but impressive. The family of Elwood Bourgeois, who was killed in action in World War II, is giving his military flag to the park. This will be raised during the ceremony. We also have high hopes of obtaining a large band for the event, at least two local beauty queens will be on hand and punch will be served to all in attendance. Softball games will climax the evening—everyone is most cordially invited to attend.

Month of Celebrations

June appears not only to be the month of brides, but of also of birthdays and of course, lots of anniversaries. Many happy returns to Ray Gordon—he celebrated June 10. Joe Bourgeois was also born under the sign of Gemini—he received a very fancy card from his best girl today. Laura and Alex Hunter will observe 30 years of wedded bliss the 29th of this month and veteran summer residents, Mr. and Mrs. George Herzog, celebrate their 42nd wedding anniversary next Wednesday 20. It was a busy month for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradley—their 22nd anniversary was June 2, and Marcello's birthday is coming up June 21—so we'll send double congratulations now just in case we're not quite as thoughtful as she—thought we had a singing telegram last week when the phone rang and we were serenaded with a complete rendition of Happy Birthday to You.

Newlyweds, Essie and Lloyd Hoffman, honeymooned in Lloyd's Clermont Harbor home following their marriage which was solemnized Thursday at Sacred Heart Church in New Orleans. Their reception was at Lenfant's.

Ruth Goelzenleuchter arrived home from Bethel, Wash., after a four-month visit with daughter Margie, son-in-law, Ed and two daughters, one who arrived during Ruth's stay. Margie and the children came home with Ruth—they'll be joined by Ed on July 4.

Roy Rehr's weekend fishing was temporarily disrupted by the arrival of his and Earline's third child, a little boy, at Hancock General about noon Sunday. Lucille and Ed Fayard are proud grandparents on the maternal side.

Boo Noto also celebrated a birthday recently—his wife surprised him with a party at their home June 2.

The Ed LeVasseur home is bustling with activities these days—visiting are daughter, Mrs. Gene McFerrin and three children of Lake Charles, La., and Dr. and Mrs. Donald LeVasseur and four sons of Breau Bridge, La.

Polly Fagen departed for Florida Saturday where she'll renew old acquaintances for the next couple of weeks.

More guests—Betty Hill had just bid farewell to her brother, Jess Walker of Louisville, Ky., who has been visiting for the past month, when 12-year-old nephew, Roger Walker of Baton, Ind., arrived to spend the summer with her and her son, Bill Ireland.

Rev. Bertrand Eckert is home once more from another sea voyage—haven't had the opportunity to inquire as to his most recent ports of call, but see that he and Mrs. Eckert are much involved in a landscaping project at their Central Avenue home.

"Mack the Knife" perhaps better known as Herman (Mac) McCall is back in town, and as always he and wife Mary spent most of their time indulging in their favorite pastime, fishing. He deviated from this amusement Saturday night when challenged to a twist contest by visiting brother Dudley. Have no results to report, but we're willing to wager that all participants had a few aching muscles Sunday a.m. . . the twist is one contortion that had best be left to the very young, believe me!

Margie Kemp took off for a four-day visit with her Jackson-in-laws last week. . . Margie looks wonderful having gained several much needed pounds recently.

Clermont Harbor weekenders, the Gerry Bops, cut their weekend short by one day returning to the Crescent City Saturday just in case the storm arrives early with their sixth little one.

The Freddie Gerstners, accompanied by grandson Lionel and granddaughter Janel, weekendend in Gerstner's Villa getting things in shape for a Father's Day barbecue with which they'll officially open their summer home for the season. . . Mr. Freddie will commute, of course, but Mrs. Gerstner, Mrs. Lionel and the children will be here until Labor Day.

Complaint of the Week

Sort of deluged this week—exercising our prerogative of listing personal gripes first, one of the few privileges of writing this distributive, we'll not only state that we bitterly resent finding the morning paper missing from its little road box, when we awake not too bright and early in the a.m., we'll go a bit farther and warn the guilty party that if it happens just one more time, we're booting the container. . . sooooo either buy your own paper, or risk losing a few fingers. . . Nuf said! Now on to items that annoy others—in just one week we've been told of brass, and we mean brass, not children, who have insulted women almost old enough to be their grandmothers when asked to move to the side of the street to enable them to pass in automobiles—this has happened twice in seven days, and in both cases the little monsters actually used the word shut-up to the ladies—don't think this requires further comment! Just one more thing—we've harped on the subject before, but apparently to no avail—maybe while a few parents lecture children on the almost forgotten grace of politeness to elders, they'll add a word or two about the perils of seawall walking—by this, we mean walking on the concrete railing and the dangerous practice of jumping across spots where there's a break in same. . . we've had one tragedy resulting from not heeding warnings regarding the hazard on diving in shallow water—let's not add traffic fatalities.

Bay Side of the News

NEW PRIEST IS PETED - Rev. M. Joseph Tiemann, center, ordained as a priest June 2 at St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans, was honored at a reception Sunday afternoon at St. Clare's Parish Hall in Waveland. With him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Tiemann; his sister, Jewel, and altar boys for his services at St. Ann's in Clermont Harbor and St. Clare's, Alvin M. Lodner, Jr., Jay Lenfant and Bobby Brown.

tiny Guy Edward Buffin, but he might resent it when he's old enough to read.

Eddie Engelhorn set up shop Monday in a newly acquired office on Beach Blvd.—Eddie, one of the fastest typists here, or anywhere, for that matter, will offer his services as a public stenographer. Mabel Green looked even more glamorous than usual Monday in black and white checks and matching jewelry. Another Mabel-Plazza this time, arrived Saturday from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., to visit son Tony and daughter-in-law, Carmen.

We were just about ready to mention the fact it had been much too long since we've heard from good friend Hazel (Mrs. Charles) Dahlin when we spied the lady in the drug store Monday a.m., accompanied by houseguests Mrs. Lella Webre and attractive daughter Patricia. Hazel will spend a few weeks in her Broad Street summer home before departing for Denver, Colo., and another sorority convention. Mrs. Webre teaches at Le Petite Ecole with another faithful Waveland weekendender, Eda Wilson, who just happened to be 'on the Avenue' at the same time. Last week Edna entertained eight little boy pupils, this week it's the girls' time. . . Monday was surprise day for the children—a trip on the Shrimp Train, a swim and luncheon at Pop's Ferry were included in their itinerary. When all of the little ones return to their homes, she'll catch up on her fishing, swimming and the like.

Animal Notes

This is really a complaint too, but by listing too many we'll be admitting that we're just getting older and crankier by the day—and it is an animal or rather, reptile tale—two years ago George Mayfield was gifted with two baby alligators by his father after a trip to Florida—they were duly christened Samson and Delilah—Delilah passed away, but Samson became a family pet living happily in the pond in the corner of the yard—he would leave his wistful habitat and eat from their hands when called by name until the family took a trip to Mobile and were informed upon their return that a neighborhood child had taken his little rifle and eliminated Samson with one shot—shortly thereafter, Dot spotted an air-rifle armed crew taking aim at baby ducks in the same pond just in time to prevent their total annihilation—guns are forbidden within the city limits—and it's up to parents to impress this upon the off-springs—the loss of an alligator, or baby ducks may not seem too serious, but it's heartbreaking to a small child when they were pest!

Armand Serpas and 'Curly' Tocas are readying their new boat to catch the most, biggest and tastiest fish in the Gulf. Congratulations are in order for Leonard Benvenuti. . . (Mrs. Benvenuti is the former Julia Loup of Waveland). We've just learned that Leonard received an excellent promotion in his position with Boeing Aircraft Corp. in Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. Baum Will Head Auxiliary

Mrs. Jack Baum was elected president of the American Legion auxiliary at its meeting Monday night. She will succeed Mrs. John Wilkerson and will be installed next month.

Others elected were Mrs. C. J. Piazza, first vice president; Mrs. Dan Ziegler, second vice president; Mrs. Gilbert Goyau, secretary; Mrs. A. J. Pitalo, Jr., treasurer; Mrs. Rene Bermond, chaplain; Mrs. Ed Virgilio, historian; Mrs. R. J. Reinke, sergeant at arms; Mrs. Lena Cuevas and Mrs. Henry Capdepon, color bearers. Serving on the executive board will be Mesdames Russell Elliott, Gerda Romanoff and Henry Prevau.

The travelling over dubious terrain. . . Jane Mollere was quite certain that she had landed in the Twilight Zone while enroute, but had a ball once she and family arrived.

Bowling Ball

There have been numerous bowling banquets recently. . . however the Never Was mixed league held a banquet to end them all Saturday night at Haverly's, Crack Pots, Laurie and Dave Poindester and Dot and Merlin Markel walked away with trophies galore, but enjoyed themselves no more than the rest of the crew which included Inger and

Success Story

A success story in feminine counterpart to those of Horatio . . . And so, through the years, Annabel . . . has anticipated our needs, added new lines, new stock, and never . . . has said "Sorry, I don't have your size" - she just orders . . . something out for us. . . She may be justifiably proud of her success, . . . her new shop as modern as tomorrow - and the gift from son, Rich- . . . ard, an air conditioner.

Jerome Tops Mollere In 2nd Extra Inning

Jerome's and OLG won their second games of the 1962 women's softball season Thursday night in separate ends of a doubleheader.

Jerome's edged Mollere's 18-17 in eight innings in the opener, one of the longest games in the league's history. Jerome's pushed across the winning run in their half of the second extra inning after the two teams finished regulation time deadlocked 15-15. Mollere's scored in the first of the seventh but Jerome's bounced back to tie the score in their half. After Mollere's scored in the top of the eighth, Jerome's scored two runs to win the game.

Jo Ann Colson was the winning pitcher and Carolyn Damians was charged with the loss.

In the second game, OLG fell way short of the 38 runs they scored last week in the season opener, but felled Moran's 8-5.

Dale Sellier pitched OLG to their victory for the second straight game. Bertie Faye Cameron was the losing hurler as OLG led all the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Ducre Bourgeois and son, J. D., motored to Biloxi Sunday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Bill Cobb.

Mrs. Earl Probst and her seven grand children, Roberta, Robert and Mickey Pizzano, Eddie, Linda, Chuck and Kathy Probst of New Orleans are spending a six-week vacation at the Probst home on Ship Street.

Specialist Five Richard Fayard of Ft. Chaffee, Ark., spent the weekend with Mrs. Fayard and daughter and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Fayard, on Sunday they visited her father, Teddy Morel, who is a patient at the Marine Hospital in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaynor Heison of New Orleans were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DiSalvo.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Evans of New Orleans were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Fayard.

Weekend guests of Mrs. Earl Probst at the family home on Ship Street were Earl Probst and daughter, Joslyn, Mrs. Nick Pizzano, and Mrs. Dallas Van Loon and children, Debbie and Lawrence.

Buddy Pitalo, coach of the Junior American Legion baseball team, reports about 15 boys, aged 16-19, are trying out for positions on this year's squad. Pitalo said the team probably will be picked the latter part of this week. A schedule has not yet been announced for the coast area.

Teen Times

We had an idea that things would calm down a bit after all the graduation excitement, but that was just an idea—something seems to be happening just about every day and night. Softball attracts large crowds each time a game is played, boating enthusiasts spend their spare time getting ready for races, summer bowling leagues are getting under way and those not so athletically inclined spend hours on the beach in the annual quest for a suntan.

SJA seniors are still raving about their Washington-New York journey, while in the capital city the girls sight-saw everything there was to see including the very impressive changing of the guard at Arlington National Cemetery and were treated to My Fair Lady as part of an anti-climax. Sightseeing also occupied much of their time in New York City but they found time for shopping, a Yankee-Detroit ball game, a Broadway play and a TV show, Emeline (Mrs. Gerald, Jr.) Price, one of the chaperones on the trip, gave the girls quite a complement upon their return—she said that their lady-like behavior on all occasions made her proud to be a graduate of St. Joseph, something that I'm quite certain that all of their parents will be gratified to hear. There was only one slightly upsetting moment on the trip... when their chartered bus arrived in New York they were more than a little startled to spy what appeared to be hundreds of beatniks complete with beards, berets and other unorthodox attire peering into every window, police quickly dispersed this motley crew and the group proceeded on their merry way.

Three Wavelanders are just about ready to graduate from Teen Times in the next few weeks—They achieve this feat by taking the final step... Sally Saraceno weds Donald Rabb on Saturday, which is the same day selected by Tommy Ray Bourgeois for his marriage to pretty blonde Joan Fontana... Pedro Noto and Loyce Gaudier have set the identical date for their wedding. All three ceremonies are taking place in New Orleans.

Farewell to Ann, Giles and Tommy Bryant who moved to Gulfport last Friday... Ann will no doubt return to visit local friends frequently, but we won't be seeing much of Giles—his recently acquired senior life saving badge has landed him a job as lifeguard at one of the large motel pools along the 'strip!

Sharon Piazza is enjoying a wonderful vacation in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where she's visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Niolet and grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Piazza. One of the most attractive features of the new Niolet home is a large swimming pool and we'll bet that Sharon will have just about the best tan in town upon her return.

Lean Captures Junior Penguin, Graham Second

Cyril Lean of New Orleans successfully defended his CYA Junior Penguin championship last weekend at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. Sparky Graham of Southern YC was second, also the same position in which she finished last year.

Lean took the lead by winning the opening race Saturday, and finished first in one of Sunday's two races, for a total of 35 1/2 points. Sparky amassed 33 1/4 points as she won the other race. Ann Hughes was third with 24 points. High local skipper was Walter Chamberlain with a fifth place total finish.

Final order of finish behind the leaders was, Peter Kahle Chamberlain, Court Curtis, Chuck Breath, Woody Burwell, Dean Taylor, Betty Lane, Guste Lorber, and Basil Kennedy.

Donald Breland, U. S. Navy, is scheduled to return home around the end of the month... he writes that he misses all of his friends here, but is enjoying Waikiki Beach as his ship is now in Hawaii for repairs.

Maureen McFerrin of Lake Charles, La., is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward LeVasseur.

Leslie Peppersden, for the second summer, is local host racing near correspondent for the Times-Picayune.

Dennis Seuzensau is busy getting her wardrobe assembled for a two-week vacation in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Hayes' found time to make a complete check on plans of St. Joseph graduates, but quite a few in the class plan to enter the convent; among these are Margie Jacob and twins, Yvonne and Erna Artigues and Margaret and Ann Homes, Linda Mazarakis will attend P.R.C.; Dianne Grass and long time boy friend Bill Henry are to be married next month. Margie Kempf has decided upon a nursing career—she's already taken exams at St. Dominic's in New Orleans.

Grace Ann Bourgeois and Pat Noonan, who just completed their freshman year at Pearl River, have decided to seek jobs in the Crescent City instead of returning to college.

Birthday greetings to Chuck Fortier who celebrated his 18th Saturday.

Mickey Ballatin will spend his 'vacation' in New Orleans as assistant to uncle, Norman Ballatin. Davis McCall, former resident, who now works in the Crescent City, visited local friends Saturday.

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862... the same year that —

IN MISSISSIPPI, the Confederate ram "Arkansas," under the command of Lt. Isaac N. Brown, won in her first encounter with Federal gunboats North of Vicksburg on July 15, 1862.

Then, as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation. But beer means more than enjoyment to our state. As 4th largest taxpayer, the Brewing Industry contributes more than 4 million dollars to Mississippi each year—money that helps support our hospitals, schools and highways.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

Palmer or Who in THE Open

One of golf's classics - the U.S. Open - takes place today through Sunday and if the tradition holds, this year's will be a thriller. There is so much drama to an Open as in a Shakespearean play. The tension on the first hole of the tournament and the pressure increases with each and every one of the remaining holes. The outcome is in doubt until the final putt of the winner. The challenger drops into the cup.

This year's favorite has to be Arnold Palmer who has dominated the past three years. Gene Littler, the defending champion, won the Open's biggest threat, Littler won $25,000 last week in the Classic event, the richest tournament of them all, and a $100,000 Open would give him enough to retire for a year. Palmer, the bold personality of a Palmer or a Sam Snead but he sometimes goes almost unnoticed, his golf swing speaks for itself. He's beaten Palmer before and will beat him again. A major factor in the Open is the course on which it is played - this year it's at Oakmont Country Club just outside Pittsburgh, which is less than 50 miles from Palmer's home. He played there many times as a boy and in the last Open in 1953, where Ben Hogan won his fourth.

About Oakmont

Oakmont is one of the toughest courses in the United States for competition, and golf courses always are made even tougher for the Open. In the history of the course, only one man ever has won it for 72 holes in tournament competition. Hogan did that in 1953. Par for 18 holes at Oakmont has always been 72 - for the 1962 Open it has been reduced to 71.

Sam Snead will be among the sentimental favorites. Snead, winner of many a tournament through his years as a golf professional, has won an Open. He has come within a whisker several times, but hasn't going to have many more chances to win the Open. This will be his 22nd attempt and time catches everyone. Snead's game is in good shape and this might be his year.

Billy Casper is another golfer to watch. His putting is probably the best in the tour and if the rest of his game is up to par we can expect him to be among the leaders. Gary Player, top money winner in the tour, hasn't done as well in '62, but he could round into form. Jack Nicklaus, playing his first Open as a pro, also is a threat. Others to watch are Jerry Barber, Doug Ford, Dow Finsterwald, Doug Sanders, Bob Goalby, temperamental Tommy Bolt, Art Wall, Jr., and Mike Souchak.

The tournament will be televised over NBC (Channels 2, 6 and 10) Sunday from 3:30 until 5 p.m. Television cameras will cover the 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th holes of the final round. As is the custom in the National Open, 36 holes are played on Saturday, leaving Sunday open in case a playoff is needed.

Almost any type player might win. We'll string along with Palmer as our choice even though he does have an injured finger which Monday required six stitches. Our hunches as to the men he'll have to beat - Littler, Sanders and Nicklaus.

Ball Time in the Bay

The summer little league season began in full force Saturday and Tuesday with the number of teams and players almost double that of last year.

The older group of little leaguers, formerly aged 13-16, now can play only through 15 years of age, making that a Pony League. There was less than a handful of 16 year-old players and it was decided that now was the best time to make the switch rather than next season when many more older boys would be involved.

The younger league, ages 9-12, has been increased to eight teams as the 8-9 year league of last season has been abandoned. Included in the younger league are Gulf Coast Express, Industrial Bowling, Cue Oil Merchants' Bank, 7-Up, Ken's Little Diggers, Coast Electric and the Junior Sheriffs. In the Pony League are: Sea Coast Echo Scoops, Summy Signs, Fahey Drug and Youth Center, none is last season.

The new addition to the Parks and Playgrounds program is the new softball league, scheduled to open next week with four teams. The softball leagues for both men and women also on the agenda, there's going to be plenty of baseball action this summer in Bay St. Louis.

Stars of the Week: Stan Musial, although 41 years old, will hit well enough to raise batting average 40 points to near .350 mark as St. Louis Cardinals won seven straight games; Japir was a close winner in Saturday's Belmont Stakes, third and final leg of racing's triple crown. Ridden expertly by veteran Willie Shoemaker, Japir edged Admiral's Voyage at wire for the victory.

A new men's scratch bowling league has been started at Bay Bowl, it bowls Thursdays at 8 p.m. and the public is invited to come out and watch the area's better bowlers participate - The top four finishers in the Junior Penguin Championship Regatta at Bay-Wave-Yacht Club last weekend were all from Southern Yacht Club.

BEGINNER SWIMMING

One hundred-seventy two beginners have registered for Parks and Playgrounds Commission sponsored swimming lessons under the direction of Mrs. F. E. Porter, Jr., assisted by a volunteer Red Cross swimmer.

The swimmer's dock will open at 8 a.m. Monday. Swimmers will be divided into three groups for lessons lasting until 11 a.m.

Scoops, Fahey Win Pony Play Openers

The Sea Coast Echo Scoops came from behind with three runs in the last of the fourth and final inning to edge Summy Signs 5-3 Saturday in the opening game of the Pony League for 1962. Fahey Drug defeated Youth Center 5-1 in the night-cup of the double-header.

The Scoops could manage only two hits off the pitching of Summy's Earl Fayard but he walked nine batters.

Summy scored in the first inning on singles by Ned Heath and Fayard and an error on Bruce Cox's grounder. The Scoops bounced back, as Fayard walked Jimmy Lolacano, Chuck Wagner, Don Wiltz and Kean Rauxet to force home a run.

Billy Thomas's single and a walk to Stevie Kidd gave Summy another scoring opportunity in the second but Wagner worked his way out. The Scoops also threatened when Fayard issued free passes to Chippy Henry and Lolacano but the rally went for nothing. In the last of the third, however, the Echo boys scored when two errors and two walks again forced home a score for a 2-1 advantage.

Summy went ahead in the fourth with two runs. Billy Thomas scored on a single and a walk to Stevie Kidd gave Summy another scoring opportunity in the second but Wagner worked his way out. The Scoops also threatened when Fayard issued free passes to Chippy Henry and Lolacano but the rally went for nothing. In the last of the third, however, the Echo boys scored when two errors and two walks again forced home a score for a 2-1 advantage.

Kiln Swamps Roland, 15-10, Industrial Wins

Kiln Youth Center pounded out a 15-10 victory over Roland's Signs Friday night in the opening game of a Bay Softball League doubleheader. Industrial Electric upped their record to 2-1 with a 12-6 victory over winless Krankey's in the nightcap.

Kiln broke into the win column for the first time this season with the high-scoring triumph over Roland, losers of two of their first three contests. Roland's one of the league's new entries, committed nine errors which contributed greatly to the Kiln scoring. A home run by Haulversen with two men on was the big blow for Kiln.

Alton Ladner went all the way on the mound. Louis Ladner was the loser. Kiln led all the way. Industrial Electric, winning their second in a row, was in command most of the way as Red Davis's pitching and several hard hitters proved too much for Krankey's.

Davis was the winning pitcher, going all the way, while Billy McDonald was charged with the loss. Bishop of Krankey's was 4-4 at the plate.

cond, and scored on a single to center by Leslie Blaize.

Fahey tallied its final two runs in the top of the fifth as the game ended short of the scheduled five frames because of the time limit. Jerry Thomas reached base on an error, Mike Strong doubled, and both runners scored on wild pitches.

Strong pitched the distance for Fahey's, allowing four hits, walking only two and striking out nine, eight in the first three innings. Jamerson was charged with the loss, allowing three runs in 2 1/3 innings. He gave up only two hits but walked seven and hit a batter.
